Dear Greg:

Thank you for the excellent service provided by all the members of your firm during the construction of our two large office/warehouse buildings in Readington Township, NJ. The contracts were performed with the utmost attention to details and quality workmanship. The staff demonstrated a genuine interest in handling any questions or concerns we had with care and efficiency. The contract prices were competitive and fair, and the final costs remained very close to the original quotes.

Hopefully, we will have the pleasure of working together again in the future. In the meantime, we will gladly recommend the services of REDCO to our friends and business associates.

Very truly yours,

Rosemarie Renda
